

Details from UNSW (Canberra) HASS website:

Associate Professor Mesut Uyar

Professional Background

Graduate of Turkish Military Academy in 1991. Got MA on politics and Ph.D. on international relations from Faculty of Political Sciences Istanbul University. Specialized on war studies, particularly on operations other than war. As a career officers he served at platoon leader and company and battalion commander positions in various infantry units and several tours of peace support operations duties as military observer at UN mission in Georgia and as staff officer in Afghanistan. He served as assistant professor of international relations at the Turkish Military Academy for ten years. He was also the curator of the Military Academy Archive and Museum Division for five years where he started his research about Ottoman military history. He spent one year as an instructor and academic advisor at the Peace Support Training Center in Bosnia and Herzegovina. He is currently working as an associate professor of Ottoman military history at the University of New South Wales, Canberra.

Courses Taught:

Undergraduate Courses: Conflict Resolution, International Relations, Peace Support Operations

Graduate Courses: Low Intensity Conflict, Geopolitics

Research Interests:

"Military History" with special emphasis on "Ottoman-Turkish Experience during the First World War" "War Studies" with special emphasis on "Operations Other Than War" and "Peacekeeping"

Areas of Potential Supervision:

Ottoman/Turkish Military History, Operations Other Than War, Peace Support Operations