

Artillery and Air -
a Unique Combination

A British Army Officers View

‘A useless and expensive fad, advocated by a few cranks whose ideas are unworthy of attention’

General Sir William Nicholson,
CIGS, British Army (1910)

Using the Air Medium # 1

General Jean-Baptiste Jourdan at the Battle of Fleurus – 1794

Using the Air Medium # 3

... But it was dangerous work

Early RFC Aircraft

Early Aerial Photography

Photos were quickly plotted

[FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY.]

S.S. 13L

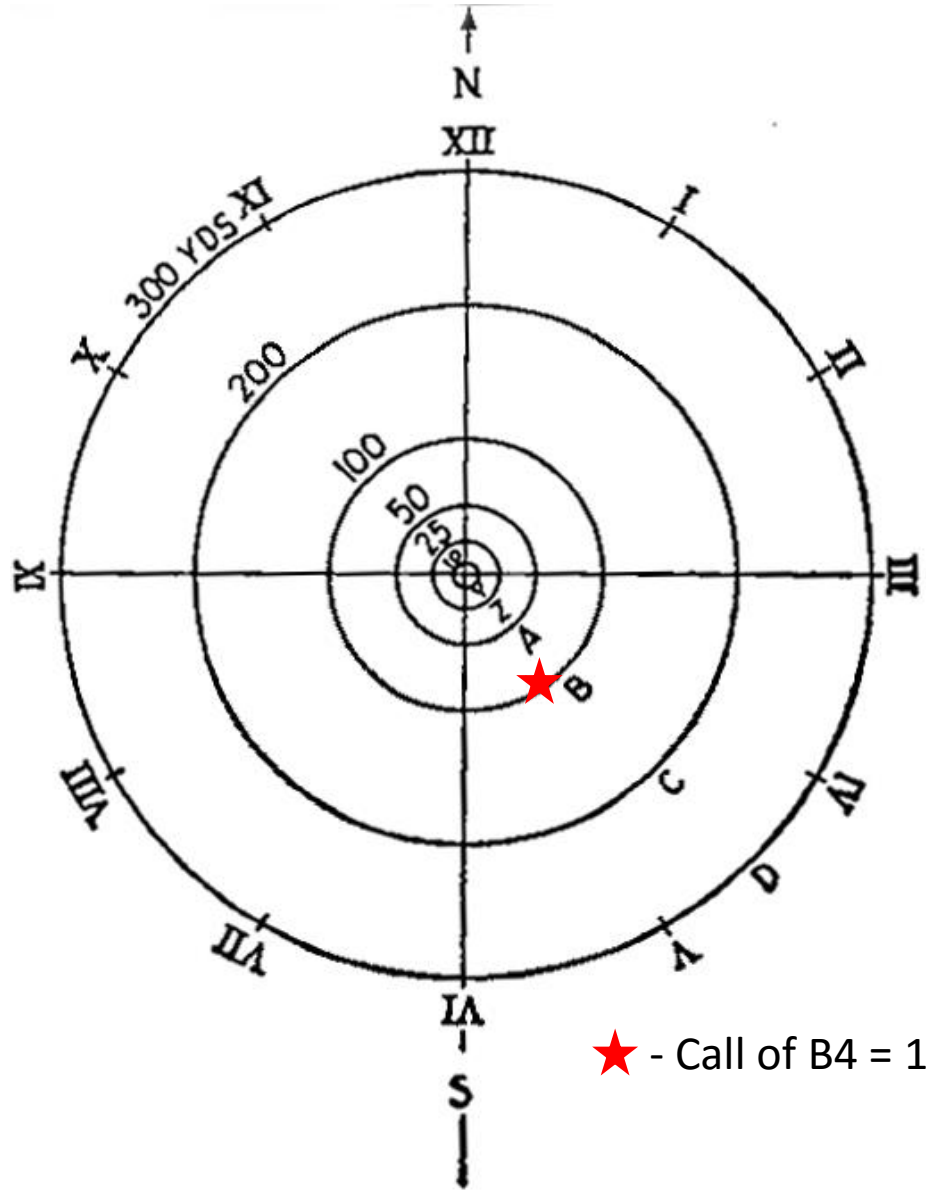

40
Misc.
1684

CO-OPERATION OF AIRCRAFT WITH ARTILLERY.

ISSUED BY THE GENERAL STAFF,
DECEMBER, 1916.

This Pamphlet cancels "Instructions regarding the Co-operation of Aeroplanes with Artillery, 1916."

LONDON:
PRINTED FOR HIS MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE,
BY HARRISON & SONS, ST. MARTIN'S LANE,
PRINTERS IN ORDINARY TO HIS MAJESTY.

★ - Call of B4 = 100yds at 4 o'clock

Lt Jack Allport MC
3 AFC

A3AE.A17
62° E. 27.0 DK 50b.
20.4.18. 12.

ZONE CALL SYSTEM

Target is designated N1

1	2	3	4	5	6
7	A 8 or W	9	10 ★	B 11 or X	12
13	14	15	16	17	18
W
19	20	21	22	23	24
25	C 26 or Y	27	28	D 29 or Z	30
31	32	33	34	35	36

6000 yards

6000 yards

★ Call of WB10 N1 – Target N1 in WB 10 square

Proyart

Image © 2016 DigitalGlobe

Artillery and Air -
a Unique Combination

End